Carswell Air Base Left in Shambles

FT. WORTH, Tex. — Carswell Air Force Base was a shambles today after a whirlwind last night took a multi-million-dollar sweep at America's longest-running military air base.

One three million-dollar bomber was destroyed, six others received major damage and several others were damaged to an undetermined extent. Two aircraft were slightly injured.

A civilian, Mrs. W. C. Connor, 44, was killed when her automobile was struck by a high speed plane. She was driving down the highway when the plane struck her car.

Capt. Burton Wilder, base public information officer, said several buildings suffered "severe damage" when the winds struck about 10 p.m.

Maj. Gen. Samuel E. Anderson, commanding general of the eighth Air Force, estimated damage to the base at $25 million.

The base, which has been called "America's Air Force base," is the largest military installation in the world. It is a "hot spot" of activity, with a crowd of 7,000 watching the fight.

Matthews Flattens Lowry in Fifth

BOISE, Idaho — Harry (Kid) Matthews, the stylish Seattle fight writer, flattened Tiger Lowry of New Bedford, Mass., in 38 seconds of the fifth round Monday night, winning his first fight since 1947.

Quick counterpunches and a combination of body blows in early rounds set Lowry up for the kill. Matthews landed him a knockout punch a couple of times, and Matthews doubled up. A right upper cut put Lowry on the canvas.

Matthews weighed 175 and Lowry 170.

It was the first time Lowry had been knocked out in more than 100 fights.

The fight tried to raise up at the corner of six, but his head was refused to the canvas. He was nearly standing on his head when the referee counted him out.

"I know I can beat him," Lowry said in his dressing room after the fight.

State GOPs Outline Points of Campaign

PARAGOULD — Jeff Speck, the Republican candidate for governor, outlined a 5-point state reform program in his bid for a 2-party system in Arkansas here yesterday.

The 35-year-old Frenchman's Bayou planter also lashed into Democratic administrations in Washington and Little Rock. Eisenhower, the GOP presidential nominee, "the greatest lie of our time."

Speck, opening his campaign for the governorship, Speck made a strong case for the 2-party system by starting at the state level.

He mentioned his Democratic opponent, Nonie Francis Cherry, only twice—saying he hoped he would be better as Cherry, who also launched his campaign with a Paragould address, and described the lone judge as an opponent of the 2-party system.

Speck claimed that Arkansas is the only Southern state wading a statewide GOP campaign and then mentioned that if the state voted Republican in November.

"The Republican Party would bestow its attention and favor on Arkansas to demonstrate to other Southern states that there is merit and reward in installing the 2-party system."

He said the two-party system would "insure to the people a constant pressure would be applied on the government to have Arkansas free of corruption would be eliminated."

Outlining a reform program on the state level, Speck listed the following program:

1. A centralized purchasing system for all state departments and agencies.
2. Reduction of state bonds and commissions from 10 to 25 cents.
3. Reorganization of public school curricula.
4. A permanent highway system that would embrace toll roads financed by a 1/2 cent a mile vehicle levy.
5. He called the present educational system a "disaster" and referred to new Arkansas roads as "30 pound felt highways" he claimed a bicycle could fall through.

Speck also attacked the national Democratic administration and the Democratic ticket, accusing administration leaders of "stealing the people blind" and calling Stevenson a product of "exclusive schools" who went to Harvard like all good "Fellows."

Following the Paragould address before a crowd estimated at 500 persons, Speck spoke at a Post-Office luncheon at 1:30 p.m.

TEXAS EASTERN INCREASES GAS SUPPLY FOR HOMES AND INDUSTRIES AS NEW PIPELINE STARTS OPERATING

New 791-mile Line Increases Company's Delivery Capacity by About 380 Million Cubic Feet a Day

The nation's newest major natural gas pipeline started operating recently as Texas Eastern began deliveries through its 791-mile line from Mississippi to Pennsylvania.

The 30-inch line, with six modern compressor stations located at intervals along it, is now in continuous operation providing additional millions of cubic feet of natural gas each day for homes and industry.

Texas Eastern's part in the national economy increases with the addition of the new pipeline to its system. The Company's delivery capacity is now over 1.2 billion cubic feet of gas a day. Its pipeline network stretches some 4,200 miles in 15 states.

In most of the states where Texas Eastern pipelines have been operating for years, the Company is a familiar friend and neighbor. Operations now extend into several new states as a result of the completion of the new pipeline facilities; in those states the Company will become a new "citizen" in the many communities where its employees now live and work.

South African Violence Continues

Violence has been continuing in South Africa since the election of the National Party in 1948. The National Party, which is a white-minority party, has been in power since then. It has been accused of perpetrating a series of violent acts against the black population. The most recent act was the killing of a black man by a white man in Johannesburg. The National Party has denied the charges and has said that the killing was the result of a personal quarrel. It has also said that it will take no action against the man who killed the black man.

The National Party has been accused of many other violent acts. It has been accused of burning down black homes, of attacking black people in the streets, and of killing black people. The National Party has denied all of these charges. It has said that it is a law-abiding party and that it will take no action against anyone who commits a crime. It has also said that it will take no action against anyone who is accused of a crime.

Lewis Ready to Ask New Benefits

By WILLIAM O. VARN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—John L. Lewis may give some indication today of what new work of pay benefits he wants for his 75,000 hard coal miners.

Representatives of Lewis' United Mine Workers and the anti-union industry returned today to the National Labor Relations Board to argue the case for a new contract to replace one expiring Sept. 30.

Unless a new agreement is reached by the end of this month, Lewis may call a strike of his hard coal diggers, as well as 400,000 soft coal miners.

The UMW chief notified the industry that he would end the existing contract within 30 days. He also moved to clear the way for a strike by notifying the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service that the contract may be given no indication publicly as to what he wants in the new contract.

There also have been reports that he plans to ask a boost in the royalty of 10 cents per ton of coal. This would mean a 10 percent increase in the price of coal.

Stevenson Has No Reply for Eisenhower

By RELMAN HORN

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Gov. Adlai Stevenson, in a major speech on farm policy, made no immediate reply today to a direct attack on his record in office in Illinois, and there were no indications that he planned an answer.

His strategy, a campaign line of attack, was to ignore the Republican accusations and concentrate on a series of "foundational" speeches to set forth his views on what he considers the major issues.

Stevenson's assistants had no comment on a speech last night by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, of Illinois, before the Federation of Illinois Women's Republican Clubs. The Republican speaker, speaking within a stone's throw of the governor's office in Springfield, asserted:

"Illinois leads all the states in union for the stamping racket. When it comes to cheating on corruption, I'm not very much impressed by Stevenson's record. He is the most corrupt man in the country. He is the most corrupt man in the country. He is the most corrupt man in the country."

Mao, Stalin Emphasize Red 'Unity'

MOSCOW, U.S.—Red China's leader, Mao Tse-tung and Soviet Premier Joseph Stalin, emphasized Russian-Chinese unity in the face of "threats of new aggression in the Far East," as they exchanged greetings on the seventh anniversary of the World War II victory over Japan.

The lengthy telegrams sent by the leaders of the two huge Communist nations were published on the front page of the Communist party newspaper Pravda today. Both Stalin and Mao stressed that Soviet-Chinese friendship is "unshakable."

Pravda, in a lead editorial, charged that Japanese reserve police troops are fighting in Korea. It also charged that the Japanese are attacking the Chinese. It said that the Japanese are attacking the Chinese. It said that the Japanese are attacking the Chinese.

Deadlocked Truce Talks to Resume

MUNSAI, Korea (AP)—Deadlocked Korean truce talks resumed today, ending the fifth straight week-long recess.

The U. N. and Communist truce delegations have met once a week since July 31. At the time, the talks were held in the home of the negotiators, Panmunjom, at 11 a. m. on Wednesday, EPT.

A major shift in the Red on the war prisoner exchange question before the talks can make any progress. For months both sides have refused to budge from their divergent stands on that issue.

North Korean Gen. Nam spoke for the Red delegates, demanding return of 116,000 Communist prisoners, including 20,000 Chinese captives in a stockpile.

William K. Harrison, top man on the U. N. truce commission, said the Red demands were "unreasonable."

Plowville Is Really a Tent City

By GALE TOLIN

MASSON—DODGE CENTER, Ark.—Open for business since blossomed today around the huge circus-like tent city erected by the combined plowing-political contests coming to this South Central Minnesota farming area Saturday.

"Now serving sandwiches and hot lunches," say the signs in front of many of the canvas eateries. They were among the first concessions to get in place for the National and Minnesota State Plowing Contests Friday and Saturday.

Operators of the establishments are mostly church groups. Their big business will come Saturday, when crowds estimated at up to 150,000 persons are expected to converge at "Plowville" to hear the next president of the United States.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Republican candidate for president, will speak at noon, Gov. Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic nominee, at 2 p. m.

In between and probably during the afternoon, all kinds of things will be exhibited, including plowing contests, horse races, and other amusements.

Dear Miss Dix: I could love my husband very much if he gave me a chance, but he holds himself aloof and acts as if he were ridiculous in showing a little affection. I have tried to tell him that I love him, but he just laughs at me. I don't know what to do.

Answer: To give a man a chance to love you is a very difficult thing to do. You must be patient and understanding. You must not expect him to be perfect. You must be a good wife and a good mother. You must be a good friend to your husband.

Holiday Death Toll Is High as Usual

By The Associated Press

The Labor Day week end took its customary high toll of lives this year, but it still was considerably less costly than the same three-day holiday a year ago.

Deaths from all accidental causes totaled 541, compared with 638 violent deaths last year. Traffic accidents accounted for the heaviest toll, killing 417. Drownings claimed another 55 lives and 59 miscellaneous mishaps.

Red H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council, said in a statement that this year's traffic toll represented a saving of more than 40 lives, compared with last year's record traffic death toll of 607.

The Council had predicted that highway mishaps would account for about 400 deaths this year. "We were right," he said. "The saving can be attributed, we believe, to a greater realization by the driving public for the need for extra caution at this time, and to special traffic laws enacted by many states and local police all over the country."

The accident toll covered the period from 6 p. m. Friday to midnight Monday last. The National Safety Council reported that there have been 84 traffic deaths every 24 hours. This includes deaths occurring from injuries during the week, and deaths occurring from injuries during the week.

Mao, Stalin Emphasize Red 'Unity'

MOSCOW, U. S. S. R.—Red China's leader, Mao Tse-tung, and Soviet Premier Joseph Stalin, emphasized Russian-Chinese unity in the face of "threats of new aggression in the Far East," as they exchanged greetings on the seventh anniversary of the World War II victory over Japan.

The lengthy telegrams sent by the leaders of the two huge Communist nations were published on the front page of the Communist party newspaper Pravda today.

Pravda, in a lead editorial, charged that Japanese reserve police troops are fighting in Korea in the name of the United Nations.

"Now, when again Japanese military aggression is being revived, when the aggressive forces of Japan again are lifting their heads, the United Nations must stand up for the maintenance of peace in the East and in the whole world."

The great friendship between the Soviet Union and the Chinese Peoples' Republic is a reliable guarantee of a repulsion of aggression from the side of Japan or any other state which should ally with Japan in its aggression.

Deadlocked Truce Talks to Resume

MUNSAI, Korea, U. S. S. R.—Deadlocked Korean truce talks resumed today, ending the fifth week-long recess. The U. S. and Soviet Communist delegations have met once a week since July 31. A decision on the truce talks will be made by the negotiators back in Pusan on Sept. 11.

A major shift in the Red on the war prisoner exchange question before the talks can make any progress.

For months both sides have refused to budge from their divergent stands on that issue.

Way Cleared for Better Airports
WASHINGTON, D. C.—President Truman today ordered immediate effect a long-range program aimed at giving the United States more and better air fields.

The program was embodied in recommendations made by a special commission headed by James H. Doolittle, World War II flying hero.

The commission was set up shortly after the three air disasters occurred in rapid succession at Elizabeth, N. J.

Embodied in the recommendations were these key provisions: 1. Airports should be given a major role in community planning and air fields should be integrated with other modes of transportation.

2. Air fields should be moved closer to the cities they serve. The Doolittle commission said they should be no further than 40 minutes driving time from the heart of a city.

3. No new airport should be planned without clear, level areas at least 1,000 feet wide and at least half a mile long beyond each end of the main runways.

4. Zoning laws should be set up for protecting approaches to airports against construction of buildings for at least two miles in fan-shaped areas at least 6,000 feet wide at the outer ends.

Woman Doctor Sent to Mental Hospital
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.—Dr. Norma Holt, the woman doctor who two weeks ago stabbed three of her children with steak knives, was sent to a mental hospital.

A Forsyth County Superior Court jury yesterday found her mentally incompetent to stand trial for the Aug. 21 murder of her 3-year-old daughter, Vickie.

Her psychiatrists testified that the 27-year-old pediatrician, wife of Dr. L. Byerly Holt, prominent eye specialist here, is "gravely incompetent by reason of insanity."

Police said the other two children involved in the tragedy, Larry, 1 month, and Anne, 4, have recovered from their wounds. They are now living with relatives in Texas. Dr. Holt tried to kill herself by swallowing pills.

The murder indictment brought by a grand jury is not nullified by the court's action. Officials said she must face trial if and when she is found mentally competent.

Eisenhower praised Republican Sen. John F. Williams of Delaware as a man who has been chiefly responsible for exposing wrongdoing in government. He pointed particularly to cases in the Boston, St. Louis and San Francisco tar-collecting agencies.

The crowd gave him perhaps his heaviest applause when he said: "There can always be one rotten apple in a barrel and it might be nobody's fault. But I can promise you this: If I should ever find a rotten apple in any barrel given to my care, it won't take me 2½ years to get rid of it."

And he added later: "I cannot tell you the whole extent of this corruption because there have been too much hiding and too little exposing by the responsible officials of our government. The American people have a right to know the answers and the only way they will ever find out the truth is to get an administration that will stop trying to cover up the mess."

Way Cleared for Better Airports
WASHINGTON, D. C.—President Truman today ordered immediate effect a long-range program aimed at giving the United States more and better air fields.

The program was embodied in recommendations made by a special commission headed by James H. Doolittle, World War II flying hero.

The commission was set up shortly after the three air disasters occurred in rapid succession at Elizabeth, N. J.

Embodied in the recommendations were these key provisions: 1. Airports should be given a major role in community planning and air fields should be integrated with other modes of transportation.

2. Air fields should be moved closer to the cities they serve. The Doolittle commission said they should be no further than 40 minutes driving time from the heart of a city.

3. No new airport should be planned without clear, level areas at least 1,000 feet wide and at least half a mile long beyond each end of the main runways.

4. Zoning laws should be set up for protecting approaches to airports against construction of buildings for at least two miles in fan-shaped areas at least 6,000 feet wide at the outer ends.

Woman Doctor Sent to Mental Hospital
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.—Dr. Norma Holt, the woman doctor who two weeks ago stabbed three of her children with steak knives, was sent to a mental hospital.

A Forsyth County Superior Court jury yesterday found her mentally incompetent to stand trial for the Aug. 21 murder of her 3-year-old daughter, Vickie.

Her psychiatrists testified that the 27-year-old pediatrician, wife of Dr. L. Byerly Holt, prominent eye specialist here, is "gravely incompetent by reason of insanity."

Police said the other two children involved in the tragedy, Larry, 1 month, and Anne, 4, have recovered from their wounds. They are now living with relatives in Texas. Dr. Holt tried to kill herself by swallowing pills.

The murder indictment brought by a grand jury is not nullified by the court's action. Officials said she must face trial if and when she is found mentally competent.

Plowville Is Really a Tent City

By GALE TOLIN
KANSAS - DODGE CENTER.—Plowville, Kan., is really a tent city. It is a collection of tents and trailers that have been set up around the huge circular tent city erected by the combined plowing-political contests coming to this South Central Minnesota farming area Saturday.

"Now serving sandwiches and hot lunches," say the signs in front of many of the canvas eateries. They were among the first concessions to get in place for the National and Minnesota State Plowing Contests Friday and Saturday.

Operators of the establishments are mostly church groups. Their big business will come Saturday, when crowds estimated at up to 150,000 persons are expected to converge at "Plowville" to hear the next president of the United States.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Republican candidate for president, will speak at noon, Gov. Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic nominee, at 2 p.m. The same same day later.

In between and probably during the afternoon, farmers on tractors will exhibit

South African Violence Continues

Violence has been continuing in South Africa since the election of the National Party in 1948. The party's policy of "apartheid" has led to a series of violent incidents, including the killing of a white man by a black man in Johannesburg last week. The violence is continuing to spread throughout the country, with many people being injured and property being destroyed.

The National Party's policy of "apartheid" is based on the idea of racial segregation. It requires that people of different races live in separate areas, go to different schools, and use different public facilities. This policy has led to a great deal of resentment among the black population, who feel that they are being treated unfairly.

The violence in South Africa is a result of the National Party's policy of "apartheid". It is a policy that is based on racial hatred and discrimination. It is a policy that is leading to a great deal of suffering and death. We hope that the people of South Africa will soon realize the error of their ways and end this violence.

Lewis Ready to Ask New Benefits

By WILLIAM O. VARN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—John L. Lewis may give some indication today of what new work of pay benefits he wants for his 75,000 hard coal miners.

Representatives of Lewis' United Mine Workers and the anti-union industry returned today to the House to begin a new contract to replace one expiring Sept. 30.

Unless a new agreement is reached by the end of this month, Lewis may call a strike of his hard coal diggers, as well as 400,000 soft coal miners.

The UMW chief notified the industry that he would end the existing contract within 30 days. He also moved to clear the way for a strike by notifying the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service that the contract may be given no indication publicly as to what he wants in the new contract.

There also have been reports that he plans to ask a boost in the royalty of 10 cents per ton of coal. This would mean a 10 percent increase in the price of coal.

Stevenson Has No Reply for Eisenhower

By RICHARD M. LORIN

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Gov. Adlai Stevenson, in a major speech on farm policy, made no immediate reply today to a direct attack on his record in office in Illinois, and there were no indications that he planned an answer.

His strategy, a campaign line of attack, was to ignore the Republican accusations and concentrate on a series of "foundational" speeches, set forth his views on what he considers the major issues.

Stevenson's assistants had no comment on a speech last night by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois before the Federation of Illinois Women's Republican Clubs. The Republican leader, speaking within a stone's throw of the governor's office in Springfield, asserted:

"Illinois leads all the states in union for the stamping racket. When it comes to cleaning up corruption, I'm not very much impressed by Stevenson's record. He is the most corrupt man in the country. He is the most corrupt man in the country. He is the most corrupt man in the country."

Blackwell Pays Quick Dividend for Yankees

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

The New York Yankees received a quick dividend on their $400,000 investment in Ewell Blackwell.

Five days after the purchase of the former National League star from the Cincinnati Reds, the Yankees Tuesday night sent Blackwell, 34, to the mound to pitch for the Red Sox.

The long, lean right-hander responded with a scoreless, five-inning performance to rack up his first American League triumph.

Blackwell was not the overpowering pitcher he had been in the days as a big winner with the Reds, but he looked quick capable before being out for a pinch hit.

He permitted four singles, fanned four and walked three before retiring the last three in the ninth.

It was in the fifth, however, when the Yankees struck up in Boston starter Sid Hudson for their runs to win the nightcap, 4-0.

Blackwell's first-place margin had hurled an eight-and-a-half shutout over the Red Sox in the afternoon portion of the day-light doubleheader.

The triumphs ran the Yankees' winning streak to five and increased their first-place margin over the idle Cleveland Indians to 3 1/2 games.

Blackwell's Dodgers, the National League leaders, dropped a pair to Philadelphia's Phillies, 2-1, Sunday.

Blackwell Pays Quick Dividend for Yankees

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

The New York Yankees received a quick dividend on their $400,000 investment in Ewell Blackwell.

Five days after the purchase of the former National League star from the Cincinnati Reds, the Yankees Tuesday night sent Blackwell, 34, to the Boston Braves.

Red Sox. The long, lean right-hander responded with a scoreless five-inning performance to rack up his first American League triumph.

Blackwell was not the overpowering pitcher he had been in the days as a big winner with the Reds, but he looked quick capable before being out for a pinch hit.

He permitted four singles, fanned four and walked three before retiring the last two batters and the humidity.

It was in the fifth, however, when the Yankees edged up on Boston starter Sid Hudson for their runs to win the nightcap, 4-0.

Blackwell's first-place margin had hurled an eight-and-a-half shutout over the Red Sox in the afternoon portion of the day-light doubleheader.

The triumphs ran the Yankees' winning streak to five and increased their first-place margin over the idle Cleveland Indians to 3 1/2 games.

Blackwell's Dodgers, the National League leaders, dropped a pair to Philadelphia's Phillies, 2-1, Sunday.
